

The McDonough Weekly

A Peek at our Week in Kindergarten

Bible: Hebrews 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Phonics: This week we will review consonant letter "T" and we will learn new letters "L" and "B".

Handwriting: Cursive writing continues this week with writing the letters "t", "l" and "b". We are also joining those letters with vowels. Practice at home please.

Math: We are currently reviewing number recognition and the proper formation of numbers one through ten. We are also learning right and left.

Social Studies: Community Helpers continues. We loved having Mrs. Grone (Kailee's mom) come in and talk to us about being a nurse! Dr. Kurecki (McKenna's dad) is next Wednesday 9/23.

Science: This week is sensory exploration. We are continuing to learn about our 5 senses.

Sign Language: We are learning how to sign our letters and family members (Ask your child to sign what they have learned).

Art with Moms: 9/30 - Johnny Appleseed Project ☺

Mystery Reader: 9/16 - Shadrach's Dad, Mr. Washington

Teacher's Words:

Please invite Grandparents to our Grandparents Day Chapel and Brunch on Thursday 9/17. Meet us in the Family center @ 9:00. We will enjoy brunch after in the small chapel. All food and drinks should be dropped off Thursday morning in the small chapel. Thank you so much to those parents who have put this brunch together ☺ We are excited to perform for our grandparents! Also thank you parents for coming in for community helpers! We can't wait to hear all about your interesting professions! Please help your child memorize your phone number and address.

Blessings,
Mrs. McDonough
