

The McDonough Weekly

A Peek at our Week in Kindergarten

Bible: This week: John 3:16-17 For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him.

Phonics: This week we will be continuing to learn blends for the letters v and w. Please review all blends at home.

Handwriting: We are continuing to learn the letter "v" and the new letter this week is "w".

Math: We are learning to write the number 10 and count to the number 29. Review teen family and twenty family. Time to the hour.

Social Studies: We are starting to learn all about our beautiful United States of America.

Sign Language: We are reviewing items found at home, food and family members.

Science: We are continuing to learn about insects.

Teacher's Words:

Wow! We have had such a fun week last week! Our 50's party is going was amazing! A BIG thank you to all who helped and donated items to our party! Thank you so much to all that have donated so much to make our auction baskets THE BEST!!!! I hope to see you at the Auction on Friday 6pm. There is child care available. Tickets are $35 per person or $240 per table. They are going quickly. If you have questions or concerns about report cards that went home today please call me to set up a meeting. Everyone should be doing very well this first quarter! 2nd Quarter has begun. There will be a test in every subject, every week from now on. Honor Roll begins 3rd Quarter for Kindergarten. Have a great week!
