

The McDonough Weekly

A Peek at our Week in Kindergarten

Bible: This week John 13:34 A new command I give you; Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. Next week: Galatians 6:9.

Phonics: Review 100 words. Sight words your child should know: to, do, a, an, the, it, in, at, am, on, off, is, has, as, and of. Please review one vowel words. We begin two-vowel words this week (ex. Made).

Reading: Reading groups working on blends and one vowel words. Reading books will come home next week. Please keep those books at home and read them (1-2 pages each night until you get the next book).

Handwriting: This week we are beginning capital cursive letters. We are also learning to connect letters in cursive to make words.

Math: We are learning to count to 100. Counting by 10's, the teen family and dot addition.

Social Studies: We are learning about other countries. England and Netherlands.

Study Buddies with Mrs. L's Class: This week we will be making windmills to learn more about the Netherlands.

Art with moms: We are excited to work on snowmen this week ☺

Teacher's Words:

Dear Parents,

We are beginning our third quarter. Please know that this is the quarter that we begin Honor Roll. This quarter is the toughest so please keep up with reviewing at home.

Before Christmas break I sent home a list of 100 words. Please practice those words with your child to get them ready for our reading groups. Reading groups resume this week. Also, your child will be expected to do a little more independent work this quarter.

Please note that our musical date has changed to Fri. 2/12. We will be sending home information about musical t-shirts soon. Every child must purchase one. We will be wearing our musical t-shirt and long jean pants.

In His service,
Mrs. McDonough
