

The McDonough Weekly

A Peek at our Week in Kindergarten

Bible: This week: John 13:34 A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.

Phonics: We are beginning the two vowel rule. "When two vowels go walking the first one does the talking and says its long name and the second one is silent."

Reading: Reading groups working on one-vowel words.

Handwriting: This week we are reviewing writing first names in cursive. We are also learning capital letters in cursive.

Math: We are learning to count to 100. Counting by 10's, dimes, the teen family and one-six addition family.

Social Studies: We are learning about other countries. This week the Netherlands.

Sign Language: Signing neighborhood items (store, car, library ect.)

Science: This week we are continuing to learn about animal habitats.

Teacher's Words:

Dear Parents,

As you can see we are starting the two-vowel rule. Please review this with your child. This is going to be a big part of third and fourth quarter.

Our re-enrollment is beginning Feb. 6th. Please know that First Grade will fill up quickly. We have 70 Kindergarteners in three classes and only two First Grade classes. Make sure you get your spot.

Kindergarten Musical is February 9th at 9:00 A.M.

Thank you.
In His service,
Mrs. McDonough
