

The McDonough Weekly

A Peek at our Week in Kindergarten

Bible: This week: Galatians 6:9 Let us not become weary in doing good for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Next week: Isaiah 61:11.

Phonics: We are beginning the two vowel rule. "When two vowels go walking the first one does the talking and says its long name and the second one is silent." Please practice at home marking vowels.

Reading: Reading groups working on one-and two vowel words.

Handwriting: This week we are reviewing writing first names in cursive. We are also learning capital letters in cursive.

Math: We are learning to count to 100. Counting by 10's, dimes, the teen family and one-six addition family.

Social Studies: We are learning about other countries. This week: Italy.

Science: This week we are continuing to learn about Groundhog Day.

Teacher's Words:

Dear Parents,

As you can see we are starting the two-vowel rule. Please review this with your child. This is going to be a big part of third and fourth quarter. Practice marking vowels short and long. And our two vowel rule saying.

Our Kindergarten Musical is February 15th at 9:00 A.M. There is only one performance. Please come and invite family and friends.

Please see that the musical t-shirts are $7.00 and due before next Wednesday. Please be prompt in sending this in.

Thank you.
In His service,
Mrs. McDonough
