

The McDonough Weekly

A Peek at our Week in Kindergarten

Bible: This week we are learning about Adam & Eve and Cain & Able and the Bible verse this week is Romans 8:31b If God is for us, who can be against us?

Phonics: This week we will review our short vowel sounds. We are starting to add consonants to vowels to make blends (example ba) and make three letter words (example bag). We will review blend ladders with B and N this week.

Handwriting: Cursive writing continues this week with writing the letters "b" and "n". We are also connecting vowels with the letters.

Math: We are currently reviewing number recognition one through twenty and the proper formation of numbers one through four. We are studying colors and shapes. I will re-test those who did not pass the first test.

Social Studies: We are learning about our community helpers (post office workers and nurse). We are learning about Johnny Appleseed.

Specials: We are enjoying our "Specials"! Please make sure your child has his/her violin and a binder to keep violin papers in. If you do not have a violin yet please order one with Mr. Enyart our violin teacher.

Art with Moms: Wednesday 9/26 -We are making a fun Johnny Appleseed project.

Study Buddies: We did a vowel farm project with our study buddies this week.

Teacher's Words:

Dear Parents,
We are so excited to learn all about Johnny Appleseed this week! Be prepared to receive some fun Fall Crafts and hear all about Johnny Appleseed! We are also happy to have parents coming in for Community Helpers to share all that you do. Keep practicing address and phone numbers. We should all have them memorized by next Friday Oct. 5. Please sign up for Remind App if you have not already done so enter 81010 and text this message @e83dh8.

Blessings,
Mrs. McDonough
