

The McDonough Weekly

A Peek at our Week in Kindergarten

Bible: This week: Eph. 4:15 Speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into Him, who is the Head, that is, Christ.

Phonics: Review 100 words list. Memorize sight words, color words and number words. We are starting to look at and mark two vowel and one vowel words. Please review. Rule: When two vowels go walking the first one does the talking and says its long name and the second one is silent. Special Sounds: ck in duck, st in stop, e in me, o in go and y in fly. New this week: ay in pray, fr in frog and pl in plane.

Reading: Reading groups are working on one-vowel & two- vowel words.

Handwriting: This week we are reviewing writing first names in cursive. We are also learning to connect letters in cursive to make words.

Math: We are learning to count to 100. Review the dime. Counting by 10's, the teen family and six addition family. Number words one-six.

Social Studies: We are learning about other countries. This week we are learning about our Olympics country – Norway!

Study Buddies: None this week.

Art with moms: Thursday 2/21 1-1:40.

Mystery Reader: Please let me know if you would like to read to the class
☺ I have a few dates coming up in February.

Teacher's Words:

Dear Parents,

Re-enrollment ends Sunday 2/17 at midnight. After this date the fee will increase.

Kindergarten musical date is Thursday February 14 at 9 am. Please you're your child to school at regular arrival time. Send your child in long jean pants any shirt and school shoes. We will be changing them into the musical t-shirt that morning.

Thursday is also our Valentines Party. We will be passing out Valentines to our classmates and having a little treat after lunch.

Friday is our Olympics. The opening ceremonies will be in the Family Center at 9 am. Please have your child to school at regular arrival time. Please have all food to the classroom before noon.

Thank you.
In His service,
Mrs. McDonough
