

McDonough Weekly

A Peek at our Week in Kindergarten

Issue 17
Week of Jan. 3-6, 2023

Bible: This weeks Bible memory verse:

This week: Proverbs 16:28 A perverse person stirs up conflict, and a gossip separates close friends.

Next week: 1 Cor. 12:27 Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.

Phonics: This week we are learning about sight words: to, do, a, the off, and of. Please practice all blends and reading 3-4 letter words at home. Your child should be able to read 3-4 letter words easily.

Reading: Please review reading 3-4 letter word list and new two vowel word list. Just a reminder that we begin testing in reading in January.

Handwriting: Cursive writing continues this week with writing words and sentences.

Math: We are learning to count by 10's and dimes. Please review clocks, addition, pennies, identifying and counting the number families.

Social Studies: We are learning about countries around the world. We are learning about Canada and Mexico.

January Important Dates:

1/3: Welcome back to school! Reading Groups begin this week. We will have 4 reading tests per quarter.

1/12: PTM Parent Teacher Meeting @ 6:00 in B103. Please plan to attend.

Teacher's Words:

Hi Parents,

Please continue to review the word list with your child daily, initial the calendar each day and then keep this in your child's folder. I will periodically reward your child for having all/most of the calendar signed. This month you will see a two-vowel word list attached. I will be teaching this rule to the class and I will explain it to parents at the PTM on Jan. 12.

Kindergarten requirement skills for Third Quarter are Color Words and Writing your first name in cursive. Book - it Reports are due by Tues. Jan 31. This is also our 100th Day of school party and Polar Reading Party after school at 6:00.

God Bless,
Mrs. McDonough
